TO SPARE THEIR LIVES.

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO SAVE THE CONDEMNED ANARCHISTS.

Some of the Prisoners Refuse to Sign a Petition to Governor Ogleby Asking Executive Clemency in Their Own Behalf—A "Mysterious" Visitor.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The efforts to induce Anarchists Lingg and Fischer to sign a petition to Governor Ogleby that his consideration of their cases might be tinged with mercy were renewed during the visiting hour this morning. Promptly at 10 o'clock a tall individual with a German cast of countenance and enveloped in a long ulster, presented a special permit to Otto Poltz, and was admitted within the iron doors. It was his second visit to the jail. Last night he made his appearance for the first time in company with Capt. Black, but neither the "mystery," as the reporters have dubbed him, nor the counsel would say anything certain: he is a mystery. One story has it that he is an influential German editor from Detroit, and another that he is the representative of the New York Anarchist committee.

Whoever he may be, however, his credentials have evidently been weighed in the balance and pronounced satisfactory by the prisoners, for he was cordially greeted by Spies and Parsons who were the only ones in the cage. When he was admitted this morning Lingg vaulted over the iron railings of the corridor above and dropped to the floor a few minutes later, and then the visitor, who in the meantime had been reinforced by Elidor Beigmann, of the Arbiter Zeitung, claimed his attention. The conference was conducted in undertone, but it was of a decidedly vigorous nature for more than once he rapped his fist again and again on the iron bars while the Anarchists laughed in his face.

Lingg's sweetheart came in while the conference was in progress, but after the first recognition she was compelled to stand aside and listen to what was being said, with an anxious look upon her face. Finally the visitors apparently tiring of their efforts with Lingg, went over to Fischer, but he, too, seemed proof against their appeals. Next they tried to induce Spies to use his influence with his fellow-prisoners, but the archoanarchist plainly said that he didn't care to interfere. After leaving the jail he captured Nina Van Zant and Spies' mother on the sidewalk and urged them to try and induce him to bring the recalcitrants into line. They promised to do so.

Outs of this there was no stirring incidents in the jail this morning. The same sentries did duty on the four sides of the structure, as well as on the interior, and nobody, not even the judges of the courts, were permitted to mount the steps to the third floor where the armed guard is being held in reserve in case of an emergency. Edward N. Spies was visited by his mother and two sisters, the latter pretty girls of eighteen and twenty. The younger carried a pretty twelve-months-old baby in her arms. Parsons devoted all his time to his wife, who came alone. Fischer was visited by his wife and his sister. Each by his mother and two friends. Neither Schwab nor Fieden had any visitors, and after remaining in the cage for a few moments returned to their cells. All were in good spirits except the visitors to Engle, who cried softly at intervals.

A bulky package of mail matter came in just before it was time for the men to go upstairs and Spies, who volunteered to act as distributor, was busily engaged for several moments in sorting it out. All of the prisoners came in for a share. Just as Nina was about to depart Spies called out to her to wait for a moment and ran up to his cell. He reappeared a moment later with a market basket filled with letters and pamphlets all stamped and addressed, and requested his proxy wife to see that they were mailed without delay.

Capt. Black expects to go to Springfield Monday with a petition to Governor Ogleby, signed by every one of the condemned men, asking for clemency. The petition will not be on in which the signers renounce their principles, ask for mercy or confess their guilt. As the captain says, "It will be complying with the law in the matter, and calling on Governor Ogleby to perform a judicial act."

Four of the condemned men—Engel, Lingg, Fisher and Parsons—have not as yet signed any petition asking for a commutation of their sentence. The first three wrote open letters to the governor and gave them to the press, demanding their release or death. The originals of these letters have never reached the governor and it is believed that they have not and will not be sent, and that the letters in print were given for an effect.

The Governor Will Not Interfere.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 7.—Mrs. Emilie Wilson, who lives at Floydenburg, a village near this city, is a sister of Governor Ogleby, of Illinois, and reached Louisville last night in company with Mrs. V. P. Brandon, of Decatur, Ill., a niece of Governor Ogleby, on her way home from a visit with her brother. The United Press learns from talk with these two ladies that the family and relations of Governor Ogleby are much concerned about the responsibility put upon the executive in the present situation of the Anarchists cases, and for that matter the governor himself is reported by them as being sorely worried by the great number of letters which had flooded him praying for executive clemency, or threatening him unless he grants pardons, as well as the delegations that are to call upon him to intercede in behalf of the condemned. Mrs. Wilson is seventy years of age, and though her brain is strong and clear. She is feeble and unable to travel alone. It is understood from her that Governor Ogleby has fully resolved not to interfere with the sentence of the courts, and that she made an ineffectual effort to persuade her brother to come with her to his old home in Kentucky and stay until after the execution of the Anarchists. This the governor refused to do, saying that he would stick it out.

Examining the Records.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—Governor Ogleby is spending most of his time examining matters pertaining to the Anarchists' cases. The first copies of the advance sheets of the opinion of the state supreme court in the matter were given him yesterday. The petitions have not begun to be filed.

Examining the Records.

the official mail is crowded with private appeals. The governor does most of his work at home.

ANOTHER MAN WHO THREW THE BOMB.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—A story now comes from Sing Sing that one of the convicts there confesses that he threw the bomb at the Anarchist meeting in Chicago.

THE FIRE RECORD.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST BUILDING IN PEORIA.

III.—BURNED—OTHER FIRES.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 7.—Fire broke out at 6 o'clock this morning in the kitchen of the National hotel, the largest and finest building in the city. Before it could be controlled, it reached the elevator and passed rapidly to the fifth and top story of the building, where it quickly spread throughout the rear portion of the building. The flames have done little damage below the upper story, though the roof in the rear half of the house has fallen in.

By 11 o'clock the firemen had gained complete control over the flames, putting a stop to further damage. The total loss is estimated at $60,000 or $70,000. No loss of life occurred. The National hotel was built by a stock company in 1883, at a cost of $175,000, and has for some time been under the management of E. H. Mertough, who is also proprietor of the leading hotel of Bloomington.

CRACKER FACTORY BURNED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 7.—The most disastrous fire that has occurred in this city in several years was that which totally destroyed the Higgins cracker factory at St. Louis avenue and Mulberry street last night. The first alarm was given at 11:30, and shortly after midnight the interior of the building was a mass of ruins. The loss is estimated at $35,000. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been the heat of the drying and baking ovens and the furnaces on the second floor. At 1 o'clock this morning the whole building was in ruins, but owing to the vigorous exertions of the fire department no damage was done to the adjoining property, except a slight scorching.

GOOD WORK BY FIREMEN.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., Nov. 7.—The efficient work of our fire department saved a couple of squares of our city from destruction at 2 o'clock this morning. At that hour the stable of Frank Stafford was discovered to be in flames. The building was soon consumed with flames. The stable of Joe Newman, Sr., next caught, and was destroyed. Loss, $500; insurance, $300. R. R. Barton's stable was also destroyed; loss, about $500. The residences of Mr. Stafford and Mr. Newman were on fire several times but by heroic efforts were saved. It took hard work for hours to prevent a disastrous conflagration. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

Twenty Five Horses Burned to Death.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Twenty-five horses were burned to death in the basement of Edward Riley's two story brick livery stable Nos. 318 and 320 west Fortieth street, about half past one this morning. The cause of the fire is not known. It originated in the basement and before it was discovered all means of giving assistance to the horses were cut off and not one of them escaped. Thirty-eight others on the floor above were all rescued. A number of valuable private carriages stored on the ground and second floors were also burned. The total loss on carriages, horses and property will aggregate $25,000; partially insured.

AN INCENDIARY BLAZE.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Nov. 7.—Knapp, Stout & Co.'s big single shed, filled with shingles, and several adjoining lumber piles, were consumed by fire last night; loss about $12,000. The fire was incendiary and the man who fired the shed was seen running away by the watchman. This is the third attempt to set the several big lumber yards here on fire the past week. There was no wind or the entire lumber yard of Knapp, Stout & Co. would have been swept, involving a loss of hundreds of thousands of dollars.

A TOWN DESTROYED.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Nov. 7.—Advices from Shady Grove, Livingston county, Ky., report the total destruction of that town by fire at an early hour yesterday. The full extent of the losses cannot be computed, but will not, perhaps, fall short of $40,000. The amount of insurance on real estate is unknown, but that carried on stocks was less than $5,000.

TWO FIREMEN SERIOUSLY INJURED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 7.—At midnight Tucker & Dorsey's manufactory took fire. The loss is $40,000; insurance, $25,000. The firm manufacture patent money-drawers and novelties. Two firemen were seriously injured.

A $60,000 FIRE.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—The mixing and engine room, also the planing mill and box factory of the Mississippi Glass works, were destroyed by fire last night. Loss, $60,000; insured.

ANOTHER INDIAN WAR PETERS OUT.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—The latest advice from the Indian Territory are to the effect that most of the reports which have recently been sent from that country respecting political trouble and bloodshed at Tahlequah, the seat of the Cherokee Nation, are grossly exaggerated and sensational. It is true that a few of the leaders of both political factions have left Tahlequah, but they will return on Monday, and it is said by those believed to be best posted regarding the situation, that unless an undue amount of whisky is drunk, there will be no actual disturbance. Many of the Bunch party men believe that Judge Mayes was fairly elected, and they think that he ought to be declared chief. The leasing of land to cattlemen in the Cherokee Strip is the principal disturbing question in view now. If that can be amicably arranged there will be no other trouble.

GAVE THE ADVANCE DEMANDED.

HAZELTON, Pa., Nov. 7.—The first break in the strike in this region was made yesterday when W. T. Carter & Co. announced their intention of giving their striking miners the advance in wages demanded, and resuming work. Nearly four hundred men are employed by this company. Other operators in this region will be forced to grant the increase and resume work by the action of this firm. The men at the Gowen & Derringer collieries are to receive an increase this month.

THE CAUSE OF THE WRECK.

A DRUNKEN CAPTAIN RESPONSIBLE FOR THE VERNON DISASTER.

Axel Stone, the Survivor, Says that Captain Thorp was in a Beastly State of Intoxication at the Time the Vessel Went Down—Confirmed and Denied.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Elgar A. Hall, brother of the second engineer of the Vernon, states that the last time his brother was in Chicago he told him that Capt. Thorp, master of the Vernon, had an attack of the delirium tremens while on top of the pilot house.

Mr. Hall was formerly connected with the Northern Michigan line, and was clerk of the propeller Champlain until a short time before she burned, when he resigned to accept a position as bookkeeper with Hanchett Brothers, No. 20 Lasalle street. He also said that it ought to have been well known to the other officers of the line that Capt. Thorp was a hard drinker, and that he had often left port while drunk.

Mr. Hall gave the name of a prominent wholesale merchant who recently made a trip on the Vernon, who had told him that Capt. Thorp was drunk during the entire time he remained on the boat.

The brother of Mrs. M. E. Van Amburg says that his sister arrived in Chicago on the Vernon September 3, accompanied by Miss Addie Mackie, of Waterloo, N. Y.

The steamer was three days longer than usual making the trip from Cheboygan, and both ladies told him that the captain was drunk all the time.

Axel Stone, the only survivor of the disaster, when asked if he ever saw Capt. Thorp drunk, replied: "The captain was drunk most of the time and he was very drunk when we left Cheboygan last week. While we were coming through the straits the second mate said to him: 'Sober up, you drunken beast, and take care of this boat and the people.' The captain told him to go to hell. I was in the cabin at the time and heard every word that was said.

Friday night, which was the night that the steamer was lost, the captain was as drunk as I ever saw him, and he kept taking a drink every little while from a bottle that he carried in his coat pocket. I guess that was why the first mate stayed on deck all the time. He knew that the captain was so drunk that he didn't hardly know what he was about, and was probably afraid the captain would do something foolish. If the captain had been sober, I

It is said one of the first things a Kansas town does is to build an academy for the education of the children of expected immigrants, and in a measure the success of many is due, it is claimed, to the fact that they have good schools.

The growth of Birmingham, Ala., has been wonderful. In 1880 her property was assessed at about $3,400,000. This year her total properties, real and personal, are listed at $40,128,000. Oh, for a boom like Birmingham's!

CONGRESS-MAN KELLEY, of Pennsylvania, thinks Kentucky will one day be the richest State in the Union. Such is the opinion he expressed after his recent visit to Louisville and other points in the Commonwealth. Mr. Kelley is a man who does not indulge in idle talk. When the rich undeveloped resources of the State are considered, it will be seen Mr. Kelley is about right in what he says.

At the meeting of the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in Philadelphia recently, the Rev. James S. Johnston, of Mobile, Ala., formerly of Mt. Sterling, Ky., was elected Missionary of Western Texas, to succeed the lamented Bishop Elliott. At the same time the Rev. Abieh Leonard, of Atchison, Kan., was elected Missionary Bishop of Utah and Nevada, to fill the vacancy caused by the translation of Bishop Tuttle to Missouri.

SHELBYVILLE is a local option town, but the liquor drinkers still manage to get their toddy whenever they want it. It is not sold as liquor, but it is liquor all the same. The Sentinel tells how it is done. It says two brothers named Adams were arraigned recently on the charge of violating the law. They had been openly selling a bitters call "Queen's Taste." They admitted the selling, but claimed the bitters was not liquor. The testimony before the court went to show that "Queen's Taste" is composed of twenty five gallons of common whisky, twenty-five gallons of water, two gallons of syrup, two pounds of orange-peel and four pounds of various other ingredients. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty, thus declaring that bitters is not liquor. The trial of the case consumed a whole day.

A case of similar nature was tried in the United States Court in Louisville, and a bitters composed of almost identically the same ingredients was declared to be liquor. "You pays your money and takes your choice."

Thanksgiving Proclamation.
Governor Buckner has issued the following proclamation:

I. S. B. Buckner, Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, recommend that Thursday, November 24, 1887, the day designated by the President of the United States for that purpose, be observed by the people of Kentucky in the manner in which each individual may deem most fitting to acknowledge the bounties which have been extended by the benefice of the Supreme Being.

Done at Frankfort the second day of November, A. D. 1887, and in the ninety-sixth year of the Commonwealth.

S. B. BUCKNER,
By the Governor:
GEO. M. ADAMS,
Secretary of State.

Pithy Points From Washington.
If every family in Mason County had a skeleton in the shape of a drunken son how quickly would liquor be relegated to its rightful place.

Will some of those who favor whisky being retained in the county, kindly show wherein it has ever been of any benefit to any one but the few who may have amassed money in its manufacture or sale?

We are able on our side to show blighted homes, ruined families, mortgaged farms, drunken fathers and sons and misery and woe on all sides, as some of the direct results of the traffic.

We affirm that if the people of Mason County vote liquor and the rum traffic from their midst, it will be the wisest and best move they can make.

If we take no broader view of the matter than the sordid selfish one of dollars and cents, it will be immensely to our gain to shake ourselves clear of this tremendous incubus.

Fashion's Fancies.
There is a threatening change from high coiffures to moderately low ones.

None but street suits and walking dresses are made with coat sleeves this fall.

Silk puffs are tastefully let in at the upper part of the sleeves of many frocks.

Stockings and gloves in Sardinian green attest the popularity of this new shade.

Tight-fitting jackets of velvet and velvet are worn in the house with a variety of skirts.

Black trimmings, jet passementerie, and braids are much in vogue for trimming colored frocks.

Stock and Crops.

The samples of tobacco awarded premiums at the Germantown fair have been sold at Cincinnati at $30 per hundred.

In Clark County John P. Bush sold 1,000 pounds of new tobacco at 15 cents a pound. Lew Brown and others, about 20,000 pounds at 18 cents all round.

At Buffalo a few evenings since J. C. Hamlin drove his two trotters, Belle Hamlin and Justice, a mile in 2:18, neither horse making a brake in the entire distance. This time beats the world's record for team trotting.

W. H. Hendrick's sale, at Flemingsburg, last week was the largest ever in that county. About $30,000 worth of property was sold. Among the stock disposed of were thirty-four two-year-old mules each at $111, twenty-nine yearling mule at $89, five suckling mules at $65.

Tobacco has been way up on the Cincinnati market of late. One lot of 200 hogsheads of fine cutters brought 30 cents per pound, and another lot of 200 hogsheads brought somewhere between 34 and 38 cents per pound—200 hogsheads bringing close to $100,000.

Last year the Dwyer Brothers bought Joe Cotton, who was thought to be a great horse for the future. The price asked was $10,000, and after some haggling they agreed to pay $9,500, with Bessie June thrown in as a make-up weight. During the season Bessie June won upward of $150,000 for the Dwyers, while Joe Cotton was a dead load on their hands, winning nothing for them.

The Lexington Press says: "We would advise farmers to hold the 1887 crop of tobacco for a while rather than to sell at present prices, 12 to 15 cents, as the price is certain to advance and holders will receive from 18 to 20 cents before the end of the year. The boom now on is a substantial one and not a speculative one, as it is the manufacturers who are advancing the price. Hence take our advice, and not sell at present."

A Sad Case of Poisoning
Is that of any man or woman afflicted with disease or derangement of the liver, resulting in poisonous accumulations in the blood, scrofulous affections, sick-headaches and diseases of the kidneys, lungs or heart. These troubles can be cured only by going to the primary cause, and putting the liver in a healthy condition.

To accomplish this result speedily and effectually, nothing has proved itself so efficacious as Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," which has never failed to do the work claimed for it, and never will.

The Chum Would Have Liked It.
The other day, in an elevator-car an absent-minded college boy, eighteen years old, was seated in his chum's lap. A beautiful young lady entered. In a jiffy he was up, and politely removing his hat offered her his seat.—Epoch.

Silk embroidery, passementerie and braiding are the trimmings of the season.
What can be more disagreeable, more disgusting, than to sit in a room with a person who is troubled with catarrh, and has to keep coughing and clearing his or her throat of the mucus which drops into it? Such persons are always to be pitied if they try to cure themselves and end. But if they get Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy there need be no failure.

Don't Experiment.
You cannot afford to waste time in experimenting when your lungs are in danger. Consumption always seems, at first, only a cold. Do not permit any dealer to impose upon you with some cheap imitation of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, but be sure you get the genuine. Because he can make more profit he may tell you he has something just as good, or just the same. Don't be deceived, but insist upon getting Dr. King's New Discovery, which is guaranteed to give relief in all throat, lung and chest affections. Trial bottle free at the drug stores of J. C. Pecon & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen, Ohio.

OUR NEIGHBORS.
MAYSLICK.

We are having some lovely fall weather. Almost like spring now, and the 5th of November.

H. F. Franklin, of Bohm Bros. & Co., Cincinnati, was with us on the 3rd inst with some nice samples.

Wm. Fields, colored, who accidentally shot himself a few days since, died on the 2nd inst. About four weeks ago his sister was burned to death by her clothes catching fire.

The drought is beginning to be a little serious in many places in the county. Drinking and stock water are both getting scarce and some of the farmers have stopped shucking corn in order to save the fodder, it is so dry.

The meeting at the Christian Church was brought to a close last Friday night. At that meeting three confessions were made, making in all eighteen additions.

Hor. A. Gooding has returned from the Hot Springs and reports himself as sound as a "daddy's dollar."

GERMANTOWN.

Mrs. Fannie Couch, who has been visiting relatives and friends in the two counties for several weeks, returned Saturday to her home in Covington Saturday.

We hear of several crops of tobacco in Mason County selling all the way from $18 to $25.

The Baptists are holding a protracted meeting at Two Lick Church, Rev. Holmes preaching.

James, second son of Grandison Pinckard, died Friday morning, October 4th, of quick consumption. Farewell, Jim, we will all drop a tear of sympathy upon your grave.

Many deeds of kindness, perhaps but little thought of at the time, will give him a warm place in the memory of many. He attached himself to the church on his sick bed, and died in the hope of a bright hereafter.

PAIR OF DANCING TURKEYS.

Device of a Cruel but Ingenious Bar- keeper to Attract Custom.

In a saloon on Frankford avenue a reporter saw, the other day, two turkeys dancing to the strains of an organette. It was a strange sight to see the ungainly birds bobbing up and down, first on one foot, then on the other, then up with both feet, circling and wheeling around each other, chassing and changing sides, keeping perfect time with an organette turned by the hand of the barkeeper.

All the onlookers were mystified, while the barkeeper grinned and raked in the nickels which were paid over the bar by the amused crowd.

Though the turkeys apparently kept time to the music, the reporter noticed that they danced on when the music stopped, raising first one foot and then the other, and as they were warmed to their work their steps grew faster and faster, the musician raising his speed to keep up with the jumping birds.

The turkeys, while going through their performance, were confined in a wire cage at the end of the bar.

The cage was about three feet square and five feet high, and the floor of the cage was thin sheet iron.

The reporter, after the crowd went out, investigated the dancing turkeys and discovered the method by which they were taught—or rather compelled—to move. He found that the plan was ingenious, though cruel. They were made to dance by means of fire. Underneath the sheet iron cage floor there was a shelf set, leaving a space of about three inches, into which was fitted an iron slide. When the man wanted the turkeys to dance he would quietly get a shovel of live coals from the kitchen stove, distribute them over the iron slide, and slip it into place under the sheet iron cage floor, and in five minutes the turkey fandango would be in full blast.

First one foot would be raised, then the other, and so on, the pace quickening as the heat increased, until the birds would be going as fast as they could lift their feet, and they would keep it up until the floor would cool off again.

"They know what's coming now as soon as I begin to fool with the slide," said the bar- keeper, "and they begin to dance without waiting for the floor to be heated. It's a good card for the place while it lasts, but I guess the novelty will soon wear off. I'm getting tired of it myself already."—Philadelphia News.

EDUCATIONAL.

Second Session of the Maysville and Mason County Teachers' Association.

THE MEETING AT MINERVA.

The second session this year of the Maysville and Mason County Teachers' Association was held at Minerva last Saturday.

About twenty teachers and persons interested in the cause from this city left at an early hour. The drive was a pleasant one, and the lovely fall weather added much to the enjoyment of the trip. At Minerva they found a large crowd awaiting their arrival.

The meeting was promptly called to order by Superintendent Galbraith, and after the reading of the twenty-third Psalm and prayer by Elder Isaac Reese, of Fern Leaf, a cordial address of welcome was delivered by Colonel Sam Forman. This was responded to by Mr. Galbraith, after which the association proceeded to the consideration of the subjects on the programme.

"The Co-operation of Teachers, Trustees and Parents" was discussed by Messrs. C. J. Hall and L. W. Galbraith. Mr. J. H. Kappes then discussed at some length and in his happiest manner the "Educational Value of Literature," dwelling especially upon the value of belles lettres. His address elicited frequent marks of approval from the intelligent and appreciative audience.

At the conclusion of Mr. Kappes' remarks, Rev. W. E. Mitchell, principal of the academy at Minerva, announced that a dinner had been prepared and invited all to partake. The lavish and excellent feast was heartily enjoyed by all and came fully up to the Kentucky standard.

After the intermission Mr. W. T. Berry entertained and instructed the audience with a lucid explanation of "Written Work in Country Schools," illustrating by specimens of work done in his school at Lewisburg.

"Education versus Instruction," after explanatory remarks by Mr. Galbraith, was then discussed by Messrs. Chandler, of Sardis, and Kappes, of Maysville.

Mr. W. T. Berry gave a blackboard illustration of his method of written work in English Grammar.

A recitation was rendered in her usual happy style by Mrs. Lou Ross, of this city, the older persons in the audience nodding approval to her allusions to the "olden times."

The last subject on the programme was taken up—"Our Mason County Schools, Past, Present and Future." Mr. W. D. Hixson, of Maysville, with his usual industry had prepared a highly interesting paper on schools of the past which he read. He exhibited a "ciphering book" more than a century old which had been begun in Virginia and finished in Kentucky. Mr. Galbraith discussed the schools of the present and Mr. C. J. Hall made a few remarks on the future.

Miss Anna Mr. Knox read a poem which awakened patriotic emotions. The sentiments expressed were rendered more effective by her excellent reading.

Mr. Thompson, of Dover, entertained the audience with brief, but well-expressed and enthusiastic speech.

After passing a resolution of thanks to the people of Minerva and vicinity for their kind greetings and their unbounded hospitality the association adjourned to meet at Sardis on the first Saturday in December next.

Many of the teachers will doubtless accept the invitation so kindly extended through Mr. Curry, of Bracken, to attend a meeting at Augusta on the third Saturday in November.

Too much praise cannot be awarded Rev. W. E. Mitchell and Mrs. Lizzie Orr, of the Committee of Reception, for the admirable arrangements made—and for their untiring efforts to make the meeting a pleasant and profitable one to all who attended.

Among those who were present from this city were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Galbraith, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Wilson, Misses Eleanor Wallace, Belle Golling, Anna M. Knox, Ida Richards, Ella B. Metcalfe, Sallie Burrows, Julia Ross, May Wood, Mrs. Lou Ross and Messrs. W. D. Hixson, J. H. Kappes, H. C. Smith, C. J. Hall, W. P. Campbell—Collins and W. T. Berry.

NEARLY BURNED OUT.

The Town of Wyoming, Bath County, Almost Destroyed by Fire.

A special gives the particulars of a big fire at Wyoming, situated on the Licking River, seven miles North of Owingsville, Bath County. The place contains about four hundred inhabitants. The fire occurred last Friday morning, and it proved very destructive.

The flames were accidental, and were first discovered in the kitchen adjoining the residence of Dr. W. E. Phillips, on the West side of Main street. The fire was under such headway when discovered that it could not be checked with the means at hand. Dr. Phillips lost his dwelling and a large store house. From these the fire leaped across the street to the postoffice, which was consumed, together with the residence of the postmaster-adjoining. Going down the street, the dwellings of John Smedley Lee Rice, Joseph Meyers, Mrs. Nancy Daugherty, Mrs. Elijah Perry, Mrs. Mary Achison, the Masonic Hall and two large barns, one of which contained tobacco and the other two hundred barrels of corn, were in turn swept away. The buildings were all of wood and burned like tinder when once touched by the flames, and the people were compelled to stand idly by and see their all destroyed.

There was no insurance on any of the buildings except a policy of $1,500 on the dwelling of Dr. Phillips, and his loss is over $4,000. The losers are nearly all very poor people, and are in a most pitiable condition, as they saved neither household furniture nor provisions. The loss is roughly estimated at $16,000.

The Mission at St Patrick's Church.

The closing exercises of the ladies mission by the Redemptorist fathers at St. Patrick's Church on Saturday evening was one of the most impressive sights ever witnessed in that edifice. The fathers have every reason to feel that their labor has not been in vain, in fact that has been evident from the beginning.

The following was the order of exercises at the closing service: Father Distler marched up the aisle facing the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary. He was followed by a half dozen acolytes with lighted tapers. Then came Father Mulane, followed by about eighty little girls dressed in white, all marching into the sanctuary where they were seated. The Rosary was recited and an instruction was given by Father Bond. Then followed the consecration of the children and ladies of the congregation by Father Bond in a beautiful and impressive manner, after which the benediction was sung. The Veni Creator and the O, Salutaris were very sweetly sung by Miss H. Kane. The Tandem Ergo, from Rossini, by the full choir was also well rendered. Then the triple blessing was given and a mission closed that will be remembered for many years. The ladies have raised among themselves a sufficient sum of money to secure a crucifix to be erected in the church in commemoration of this mission. The pious fathers are indeed happy to see that the congregation have taken such a lively interest in the good work.

The mission for the men began last night. About six hundred were present and listened attentively to the eloquent discourse delivered by Father Bond. Many were present who had not been to church for years before, and were so impressed with the eloquence, zeal and earnestness of the good father that they have decided to make the mission. All men are earnestly invited to attend these exercises.

Lee Against Clinger and Others. The case of James F. Lee against Mayor George Clinger and Marshal Reuben Hunt and their sureties, of Chester, for false imprisonment was called in the Circuit Court last Saturday morning.

The case has been mentioned heretofore, and was one of more than ordinary interest. Mr. Lee brought suit against the Mayor and Marshal for damages for imprisoning him for an alleged contempt of court. The case has caused considerable talk in Chester, and involves several interesting questions.

Messrs. A. A. Wadsworth and George R. Gill represent the plaintiff while Messrs. C. D. Newell and Thomas R. Phister are attorneys for defendants.

Saturday morning the defendants moved that Mr. Lee be required to elect whether he would prosecute his suit against the Mayor or the Marshal. The court sustained the motion and plaintiff decided to prosecute the action against Mr. Clinger and his sureties, and the suit against Mr. Hunt was dismissed.

The attorneys for defendants then filed a general demurrer on behalf of the sureties and one on behalf of the principal, Clinger, both of which were sustained and Mr. Lee's suit was dismissed. He was granted leave until the next term to amend his petition.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Three Highly Esteemed Citizens Answer the Summons and Pass Peacefully Away.

John Pecor died yesterday afternoon between four and five o'clock at the family residence on Third street, near Limestone. He had been seriously ill for several months, and his critical condition for days past had given warning of the near approach of death.

The deceased was born March 11, 1814, and was consequently in the seventy-fourth year of his age. He was a native of Philadelphia, but had resided in Maysville for the past fifty years. In his death this city loses a citizen who enjoyed the respect and esteem of all who knew him. His wife and four children—three sons and one daughter—survive him.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence, services by Dr. John S. Hays.

DEATH OF SISTER MARY AGNES.

Sister Mary Agnes, Mother Superior of the Visitation Academy, died Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, of consumption. Her condition had been very critical for the past month, and during the past week her death was hourly expected. The funeral took place at half past 8 o'clock this morning, Revs. J. B. Glorieux and Joseph Distler officiating. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Washington.

Mother Mary Agnes was a Miss Kane, of Flemingsburg. She was thirty-three years old, having been born June 14, 1855. She took the veil seventeen years ago, and entered the convent where she had been educated. Two years and six months ago she succeeded Sister Mary Dolores as Mother Superior of the Visitation Academy. She was a woman of remarkable beauty, highly accomplished and possessing all the attractions which adorn society, but her life was devoted to the cause of her Maker. She lived and died loved and esteemed by all.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.

The BULLETIN'S Washington correspondent says Miss Judith Key died at her home in that place Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, having attained the good old age of eighty five years. She was a woman remarkable for her piety, her charitable acts and many other good traits.

The remains were buried Sunday afternoon, after appropriate services in the church which she loved so well. She will long be remembered by all who had the pleasure of knowing her.

Personal. Throop Browning has returned from a visit to relatives in Virginia.

Arthur Campbell and bride arrived Saturday evening on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Campbell.

Dr. A. H. Wall and wife have returned from a visit to their daughter Mrs. Judge Apperson, of Mt. Sterling.

LATEST NEWS BY CABLE.

RIDICULOUS PREPARATIONS FOR CHAMBERLAIN'S VISIT.

A Report That Four Detectives Will Accompany Him on His Tour in This Country—Blunt Pronounced a Crank. Balfour's Body Guard—Foreign Notes. LONDON, Nov. 7.—To judge from the tone of the articles in several of the London journals, and the language of many of Mr. Chamberlain's friends, one would imagine that instead of crossing the Atlantic on an ocean ferryboat to fulfill a peaceful errand in a civilized country, that gentleman was undertaking a compulsory mission to the capital of some cannibal potentate whose temper was more than ordinarily capricious.

It is hard to say whether the uncontradicted statement that he is accompanied by two English detectives on his trip across the water creates the more merriment or disgust among the Americans here, for that the Scotland Yard gauntlet would be of any assistance to Mr. Chamberlain in America no one familiar with the country for a moment imagines. The report that the attendant bodyguard will be reinforced by two New York sleuth-hounds warranted to scent any dynamiter that may be on the English diplomatist's trail causes unmixed indignation, for no sensible person supposes that Mr. Chamberlain will be in danger of any insult or injury while attending to his duties in Washington. But then there are few Englishmen who have sensible views regarding America or Americans.

A Conservative member of parliament, who has been in the United States, and who keeps himself informed concerning current events there, through the columns of the leading American newspapers, predicts that Mr. Chamberlain will create a very favorable impression upon those with whom he comes into contact at Washington, and that through his efforts the fisheries question will be speedily and satisfactorily settled.

During a conversation in which the same gentleman was requested to give his views upon Irish affairs in general, he was decidedly reticent as regards the main question, but it was plain that he had no sorrow for the misfortunes which have befallen or may befall English sympathizers with Ireland through their presence at interdicted meetings. Mr. Wilfred Blunt, he says, is what would be called in America a crank, and is supremely happy in the notoriety he has gained, through his wife, who is the possessor of a title, is generally considered responsible for Mr. Blunt's eccentricities. Lady Anne Blunt's present hobby is the Irish question. She has spent some years in travel in out-of-the-way regions, and is the author of a rather entertaining book, entitled "The Bedouin Tribes of the Euphrates."

The pair returned some time since from their jaunt through Mesopotamia thoroughly imbued with the idea that their mission in life was to improve the English breed of horses by mingling with their degenerated blood the pure strain of some steeds of the Desert, which it was hinted the wily natives had unloaded upon the Blunts at fancy prices. To the great mortification of the philanthropic couple the English horse breeders ridiculed the Bedouin "children of the wind," although the pedigrees of some of them reached back to the times of Solomon, and even had the cruelty to outrun them with some very inferior English horses. Lady Anne is credited with possessing sufficient philosophy to enable her to bear her husband's probable imprisonment with becoming fortitude.

Balfour's Bodyguard.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Chief Secretary of Ireland Balfour spoke at Birmingham last night. He defended the government's Irish policy, and concluded with the assertion that the ministry would proceed with the work it had started in Ireland which, though difficult, the government was capable of accomplishing.

The most astonishing thing about Mr. Balfour's appearance was that he was surrounded by heavily-armed detectives and police to protect him from the supposed Irish-American assassins in the crowd. At the depot he was met by the chief of police, who walked at one side, while a detective was on the other. The extensiveness of the police preparations were laughable, but Mr. Balfour seemed to regard them seriously.

Irish Affairs.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—All persons who took part in the midnight meeting at Woodford three weeks ago will be prosecuted by the government. Among those known to have been there are M. P.'s James Rowland, T. P. Gill and David Sheehy and Mr. Denso, secretary of the lord mayor of Dublin.

Owing to Mr. Cox's failure to appear at Ennis court, in answer to summons, a warrant has been issued for his arrest. He is charged with attending proclaiming meeting in County Clare.

A half dozen moonlighters have been arrested for shooting a farmer. Twenty-one persons who resisted officers while making evictions at Ballykerrowen have been imprisoned for various terms.

Passed Through a Hurricane.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 7.—The steamship Umbria arrived here to-day, and reports passing through a hurricane on Wednesday last. Tremendous seas were shipped and five steerage passengers were injured, one of whom had a leg broken; another was cut on the head and arm. Mr. Jay Gould, who, with his family, is on board, says that he did not suffer any from the storm, and that absolute freedom from business has been beneficial to him. Mr. Gould listened closely while the latest news of the money market was related to him, and then declared that he did not intend to transact any business in England.

Sullivan Arrives at England.

QUEENSTOWN, Nov. 7.—The Cephalonia arrived here to-day with John L. Sullivan on board. The latter expresses much indignation at both Kildare and Mitchell, and wants to fight both in the same ring. Sullivan believes Smith is better than Kildare. He says that he means to return to America as champion of the world or die here.

Tuesday's Election.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—Much interest is being taken in next Tuesday's election, not only in Ohio but elsewhere. Aside from Ohio the main points of interest will be New York, Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Minnesota. The two Virginias and Maryland are attracting attention because the Republicans believe that they have a chance of carrying them. Minnesota and Massachusetts are equally interesting fields, because the Democrats look for great gains therein. Rhode Island is of consequence, because there is a special congressional election to fill a vacancy, and because the control of the house of representatives on a vote by states depends upon the result.

Bloodshed. Feared.

MUSKOGEE, L. T., Nov. 7.—The troubles arising out of the recent election are likely to result in bloodshed, and last night what is known as the Nationalist party, barricaded the public buildings, the main street and advantageous points. Two men arrived here last night, and said that J. B. Mayes, the Downing chief, alleged to have been elected at the last election, was at Glouster at the head of a big armed force, and would march on Tahlequah. All the women and children and other non-combatants have left the capital, and a strong line of picket has been placed around the town. Preparations for a stout resistance are being made and messengers are being sent in all directions by the Nationalists to summon aid. Rabbit Bunch, the Nationalist chief, has gathered a force, and is fully armed. Two-thirds of the forces of the nation will be in Tahlequah next Monday, and if the Nationalist council count in Rabbit Bunch to the chief army, the Downing people will immediately commence hostilities. If war ensues it will be a bloody one.

Berdon's Torpedo and Ram.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The liveliest efforts now in progress here to work up a lobby for the next congress are those which relate to what is called the Gen. Berdon torpedo and ram. He has recently secured the publication of a story that his system has been practically approved by the naval board on floating defense. This is correct, except in the one particular that the board has not even taken up his system for consideration. In a newspaper sense, there is nothing that it be better to keep further away from than the Berdon torpedo business.

Probably Suicided.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The friends of David Scott, of Vernon Brothers & Co., who disappeared on Tuesday last, leaving behind him an overdrawn account and $70,000 in improperly indorsed notes, have formed the opinion that he has committed suicide. He was heard from last on Thursday at Niagara, where he purchased a ticket for the other side. He has not been heard from on the Canadian side, and he left his watch and wallet at the hotel in Niagara.

Another Cholera Laden Vessel.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A report was circulated to-day that the French steamer Chateau Yquem which arrived from Bordeaux had cholera on board. Health Officer Smith emphatically denied the report. He said the vessel was detained for twenty-four hours for inspection.

Charged with Murder.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.—Frank Harn, uncle of the Frank Harn recently found dead in a carriage on a freight car at Chicago yesterday, charged the two men, James Simms and Scott Coates, already in custody, with the deliberate and malicious murder of his nephew, Frank Harn, on the night of October 28, in Allegheny county. The detectives who have been working the case have no doubt of the guilt of these two men.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Indications—Warmer, fair weather, light to fresh winds, generally shifting to southwesterly.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

NEW YORK—Money 20 3/4 per cent. Exchange steady. Governments steady. Currency sixes 121 bid; four coupons, 123 1/4 four-and-a-half, 10 1/4 bid.

The stock market opened active and strong under the lead of the Vanderbilts, which were quite heavily brought prices steadily advanced during the first hour. At 11 o'clock the advance ranged from 1/2 to 1 per cent. The market then became dull, and on the appearance of the bank statement showing a decrease in the reserve of over $2,000,000, there was a pressure to sell, which sent prices down to the lowest figures. The sales for the day amounted to 105,393 shares.
